In order to quantify you nominees' traits and abilities (or an outstanding event they have performed) please attach a separate letter outlining why they should receive the Star of Life Award. This should be limited to 800 words or less.

OKAMA will present each nominee with a commemorative Star of Life trophy and lapel pin just for being nominated during the program on March 30, 2016. We also produce a special DVD power point that will outline the facts you provide on your nominee, of which a copy will also be provided. We ask that you send us 8 good quality photographs 2mb or bigger. (No selfies please) with the nomination form. You should consider backgrounds of contrast (other than an office mug-shot with the door behind the subject).

The program is a dress-formal event with coat and tie recommended (or service dress uniform).
